

Distinguished Professorship & Chair Rating Rubric

Applicant's Name:
Criteria for Professorship	Outstanding 4 points	Acceptable 2-3 points	Incomplete 0-1 points	Earned Points
Proposed study program	Meets requirements for acceptable, but clearly expresses the intersection of teaching and scholarly research.	Detailed narrative outlining the proposed study program, likely results, major uses of the professional development; demonstrates contribution to discipline, department and Millikin in general.	Proposed study program is unclear. Missing results and funding information
Supporting Documentation	Meets requirements for acceptable. Supporting documentation clearly connects to the proposed program of study.	Provides current CV, copies of selected publications and other formal scholarly materials	Missing CV and/or other evidence of scholarship or teaching excellence
Recommendations	Includes 2 letters of recommendation. Letters make clear the capacity of the faculty to carry out the proposed program.	Includes 2 letters of recommendation from professional colleagues, which speak somewhat to the capacity of the faculty to carry out the proposed program.	Does not include 2 letters of recommendations, or letters fail to make clear the capacity of the faculty to carry out the proposed program.
			TOTAL POINTS

August 2017