Biographical Note

Dr. Albert Reynolds Taylor was Millikin University's first president, serving from 1901-1913. He also served as interim president from 1915-1919, and as acting president from May-September, 1924. Taylor was born in Magnolia, Illinois in 1846. Prior to acting as Millikin's first president, he served as president of the State Normal School of Kansas in Emporia for 19 years, starting in 1882. He is author of several books, including: "Autobiography of Albert Reynolds Taylor, Ph.D., LL.D., L.H.D.: President Emeritus The James Millikin University," "The Life Story of James Millikin: Founder of the James Millikin University," "Among Ourselves: A Schoolmaster with His Friends at the Round Table," and "The Study of the Child: a Brief Treatise on the Psychology of the Child, with Suggestions for Teachers, Students, and Parents," which also was published in Spanish, as "El Estudio Del Nino: Breve Tratado de la Psicologia del Nino, con Indicaciones a los Maestros, Estudiantes, y Padres de Familia." Taylor died in 1929.
