

Research & Artistic Achievement Award Rating Rubric

Applicant's Name:
Criteria for RAAA	Outstanding 4 points	Acceptable 2-3 points	Incomplete 0-1 points	Earned Points
Exploration or Reevaluation	Strong evidence of exploration of new territory or reevaluation of what is known or accomplished.	Some evidence of exploration of new territory or reevaluation of what is known or accomplished.	Little or no evidence of exploration of new territory or reevaluation of what is known or accomplished.
Engagement over time	Narrative demonstrates strong engagement in an agenda of research or artistic endeavor over time.	Narrative demonstrates some engagement in an agenda of research or artistic endeavor over time.	Narrative demonstrates little or no engagement in an agenda of research or artistic endeavor over time.
Products, performances, or texts recognized as excellent by peers	Evidence that products, performances, and texts are recognized as excellent by peers, contributing significantly to the field.	Evidence that products, performances, and texts are recognized as competent by peers, contributing somewhat to the field.	Little or no evidence that products, performances, and texts have been reviewed by peers or that they have contributed to the field.
Contextualization of peer review sources	Clear contextualization of the stature, credibility and expertise of peer review sources in the discipline.	Some contextualization of the stature, credibility and expertise of peer review sources in the discipline.	Little or no contextualization of the stature, credibility and expertise of peer review sources in the discipline.
Contribution to Millikin and its students	Strong contribution to Millikin and its students.	Some contribution to Millikin and its students.	Little or no contribution to Millikin and its students.
			TOTAL POINTS

November 2019