NOTICE: Warning concerning copyright restrictions

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order, if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

University Archives & Special Collections Duplication Policy

In compliance with the copyright law, the Millikin University Archives limits the number of copies of each item to one. Furthermore, we cannot copy all or substantially all of a work for you unless an unused copy of the work cannot be found at a fair price. In addition, we reserve the right to restrict the use or reproduction of rare, valuable, or fragile items; and to make special quotations on items involving unusual difficulty in copying; and to charge a use fee for staff time in excess of one half hour to fulfill this reproduction request. Millikin University retains the copyright to any and all Millikin University materials covered by current U.S. copyright law.

CONDITIONS of USE: In consideration of our supplying you with a copy of a photograph or other document, the user agrees:

1. To use the image(s) only once and then only for the purpose stated on this form, and
2. To credit each individual reproduction to: identification of photograph, name of collection, Millikin University Archives, and
3. To make advance payment to the Archives for reproduction and use fees, and
4. Not to use, copy, distribute, or authorize others to use the image(s) for any purpose differing from the specific use stated above without written permission from the Millikin University Archives, and
